Call for Nominations – New Zealand F-Class Team Captains

2030 ICFRA F-Class World Championships – Australia

NRANZ is calling for nominations for New Zealand F-Open Team Captain and New Zealand F-TR Team Captain for the 2030 ICFRA F-Class World Championships in Australia.

Nominations close at 5:00 pm on Sunday 31 January 2027

If you are thinking about it but can't yet commit, nominate now rather than wait and see.

How to nominate

This is a self-nomination process. Email your nomination to the NRANZ Secretary at secretary@nranz.org.nz with the subject line "2030 F-Class Captain Nomination.

Your nomination should include:

1. Position – F-Open, F-TR or both. If both, state your preference.
2. Shooting resume – a brief summary of your achievements and performance history: national results, representative teams, and roles held (shooter, coach, captain, adjutant, manager).
3. Leadership experience – in shooting or elsewhere.
4. Your approach – no more than one page on how you would lead the team: selection, preparation and building a competitive, cohesive team.
5. Commitment – confirmation that you can commit to the campaign through to 2030.

Eligibility

Nominees must be a current financial member of NRANZ, eligible under ICFRA rules to represent New Zealand, and hold (or be able to obtain) a New Zealand firearms licence and the permits needed to travel to Australia with firearms.

Funding

This is expected to be a primarily self-funded tour.

Selection and timeline

Nominations will be considered by the NRANZ National Selectors, who will recommend appointments to the NRANZ Board for ratification. Shortlisted nominees may be interviewed.

Please nominate to secretary@nranz.org.nz by Sunday 31 January 2027.
