NRANZ is calling for nominations for a TR Team Captain to the 2029 SABU Championships in South Africa.

This event includes several teams matches and concludes with the ICFRA individual and pairs matches. The team Captain may be expected to Captain the ICFRA teams, NRANZ is waiting on more details.

Your nomination should include:

1. Shooting resume – a brief summary of your achievements and performance history: national results, representative teams, and roles held (shooter, coach, captain, adjutant, manager).

2. Leadership experience – in shooting or elsewhere.

3. Your approach – no more than one page on how you would lead the team: selection, preparation and building a competitive, cohesive team.

4. Commitment – confirmation that you can commit to the campaign through to 2029

Eligibility

Nominees must be a current financial member of NRANZ, eligible under ICFRA rules to represent New Zealand, and hold (or be able to obtain) a New Zealand firearms licence and the permits needed to travel to South Africa with firearms.

This is expected to be a primarily self-funded tour

The NRANZ Board selects Captains

The Team Captain will select their Adjutant/Manager for approval by the selectors.

How to nominate

This is a self-nomination process. Email your nomination to the NRANZ Secretary at secretary@nranz.org.nz

Nominations close Sunday 31 January 2027.
